Turbotec Products Plc Appoints Buchanan Communications
as Financial Public Relations Adviser

Turbotec Products PLC
17 January 2007
For Immediate Release

Turbotec Products Plc ("the Company" or "Turbotec"), a leader in enhanced heat transfer technology, is today pleased to announce that it has retained Buchanan Communications Limited ('Buchanan'), a Financial Public Relations Consultancy in the United Kingdom, effective immediately.

Buchanan is one of the UK's leading financial communications and investor relations Consultancies. Mrs Kelly-Ann Knight, a Regional Director of Buchanan in Leeds, West Yorkshire, will be responsible for Turbotec's public relations activities in the UK.

Tom Nairn, Chairman of Turbotec commented:

"Turbotec is delighted to be working with one of the most respected and successful Financial Public Relations agencies in the United Kingdom and we believe the Regional Office in Leeds will consistently provide the Company with hands on and effective advice. This appointment is therefore supporting our efforts to grow Turbotec steadily and to value relationships with shareholders and the market generally."
